

in between dreaming and coming true he and she remedy one life breath as the words transpire lead along ways of uncertainty; pronouncing unexpected affections along lines of demarcation - while he is she and bodies meet perspectives shift placing weight on you - and I, thus we.
Long after time mouth opens to search for sensations regularly denied, or illegitimately conceived - projections, intrusions saliva storytelling intercepting lies, lying within soft whispers passing muscle flexing.
He remains she he me she he we...
Wanton protrusions
Waxing inclusions
Protrude out Inject in to we.
